Baseball, Softpitch, & Softball

7-11 yr old

SOFTPITCH is designed as a co-ed introductory league for those progressing from T-ball into pitched ball for the first time using a pitching machine. The ball will travel slower to allow for more success. A great way to introduce your child into the sport! Practice will be held once or twice per week in the evenings. The season is based on a seven game schedule with every effort to make up cancellations. Age determined as of July 31.

The BASEBALL/SOFTBALL program is an instructional program for boys and girls 9-11 years old who are progressing from softpitch, as well as players not ready for live pitch baseball. Age determined as of July 31. This division uses a pitching machine to help kids make the transition to baseball and softball. Using a pitching machine, the emphasis will be placed on participation and fun while focusing on skill development. Practices will be once or twice per week in the evenings. The season is based on a seven-game schedule with every effort to make up cancellations.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: Wednesday, May 29.

VOLUNTEER COACHES ARE NEEDED! If interested call 303-665-0469 or email krisk@cityoflafayette.com. Location: Local parks and schools. A $10 late fee will be charged to anyone who signs up after the registration deadline.
