CITY OF LAFAYETTE
CITY COUNCIL WORKSHOP

July 10, 2012

Call to Order
Mayor Cutler called the July 10, 2012 City Council Workshop to order at 5:34 p.m. in the Council Chambers at 1290 South Public Road, Lafayette, Colorado.

Those in attendance were Mayor Carolyn Cutler, and Councilors Pete d'Oronzio, Alexandra Lynch, Brad Wiesley and Christine Berg.

Also present were City Administrator Gary Klaphake, Police Chief Rick Bashor, Deputy City Clerk Susan Barker, Recreation and Facilities Management Director Curt Cheesman.

Lafayette Historical Society Update
Lafayette Historical Society President Bill Watson and Member Heidi Buhr reported on progress and activities of the Society and Museum resulting from funding received from the City. Accomplishments for 2011 included increased membership, bi-monthly programs rotating displays at the Lafayette Library and inventory of over 8,000 items. Mr. Watson and Ms. Buhr also reported on their plans for 2012 and their long range goals. They requested $30,000 from the 2013 budget and itemized how the funds would be used. The Historical Society also requested to be added as a line item to future budgets.

Energy Sustainability Advisory Committee Annual Report and 2012 Goals
Chairman Kent Brown provided Council with an overview of accomplishments over the past year that included awarding the Green Business Program to WOW Children's Museum, placement of the Electric Charging Station at the Library, mini grants awarded and the hiring of Sustainability Grant Writer Staci Lambright. Mr. Brown discussed the groups 2012 goals and requested continued funding from the 2013 budget.

Adjournment
Mayor Cutler adjourned the workshop at 6:45 p.m.
