Also present were Officer Wendy Stogner and Advisory Members Karen Snortland and Elaina Verveer.

Items from the Public
University of Colorado Boulder undergraduates Kate Morris and Arielle Powers shared their vision for a Lafayette youth center, which they hope to implement as part of a year-long project. They also collected feedback from the Committee, as well as invited members to support their efforts.

Committee Minutes
A motion was made by Jasmine Trujillo and seconded by Emma Piller to approve the minutes of the Committee Meeting of October 17, 2012 as written. The motion was passed unanimously.

Scheduled Items/Discussions
Co-Chair Brynna Bostic invited members to reflect on their participation in Lafayette's annual Halloween Event and Pumpkin Run during which they co-facilitated a variety of age-appropriate and relevant activities. Members suggested that prizes other than candy be purchased in future events, as well as recommended that additional activities for primary students be offered. Members also briefly discussed their involvement in similar events sponsored by Safehouse Progressive Alliance for Nonviolence and Project YES.

Co-Chair JD Mangat reviewed the tentative schedule for Lafayette's Eighth Annual Martin Luther King, Jr. March for Peace and Celebration, which will be held on Monday, January 21, 2013. Members also identified various groups to perform during the event, including the Centaurus Drum Line (Abby Schmid), the Second Baptist Choir (Madison Cowan), the Angevine Honors Choir or Jazz Band (Hailey Ettinger and Megan Schmid), and the Shamwari Youth Marimba (Jasmine Trujillo). Brynna Bostic will also reach out to relevant student groups at Peak to Peak, as will Angelica Grimard, Sydney Herman, and Max Hittle collaborate with the Student Council and other groups at Centaurus.

Members met in MLK sub-committees to discuss the program, identify service projects, and finalize outreach and fundraising plans.

Officer Wendy Stogner facilitated a brief discussion about dating abuse, which she first introduced in October. Rather than develop a project to address the issue, members will support Centaurus students who will likely develop an awareness campaign on dating violence this spring.

With Officer Stogner's support, members created a tentative agenda for a school assembly they hope to co-facilitate at Centaurus and Peak to Peak this spring prior to Prom on the effects of drinking and driving. In addition to sharing facts about drinking and driving the week prior to the assembly, the Lafayette Youth Advisory Committee and Police Department will create several short videos on the topic to screen during the proposed assembly, as well as will invite students to participate in various obstacle courses and/or drunk driving simulations. Videos will be filmed and edited in February.

Officer Stogner also briefly discussed the Santa Cops program, which members are welcome to support.

Adjournment
A motion was made by MiaBella DiFiore and seconded by Max Hittle to adjourn the Committee Meeting of November 7, 2012 at 7:50 p.m. The motion was passed unanimously.
